Internet sites for machine translation

Part 2 – portals

| Site | URL | Remarks |
|-------------------------|---|--|
| Fagan Finder | http://www.faganfinder.com/translate/ | Portal to 16 different translation engines |
| Free Translator | http://www.free-translator.com | Portal site for 28 different systems |
| Humanitas | http://www.humanitas-international.org/newstran/more-translators.htm | Directory of translation sites; advert-driven. |
| Langenberg | http://translation.langenberg.com | Links to a range of other sites. Includes a section for identifying an unknown language from text. |
| Mezzofanti | http://mezzofanti.org/translation/ | Links to Babelfish, SDL, WorldLingo and InterTran plus a range of dictionaries for single words. |
| Translation & Languages | http://www.translation-and-languages.com | Advice and portal site – no information on which services are used |
| Translation Directory | http://translation4.com | Does not provide translation services itself, but helps to identify which services deal with a specific language pair. |

* Note – this document does NOT list machine-translation packages only available as desktop products; it covers ‘instant’ web-based services offering free-of-charge only. Many packages available for desktop use offer additional language pairs e.g. products from Translation Experts Ltd offer language pairs between any of English, Dutch, French, German, Japanese, Portuguese, Russian, Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Finnish, Greek, Hungarian, Icelandic, Polish, Romanian, Serbian, Slovenian, Swedish, Welsh, Spanish (Eur), Spanish (Amer), Portuguese (Eur) and Portuguese (Amer).
